

Elf On The Shelf

- Naughty Cards -

Oops! Santa knows you haven't been on your best behaviour today. Try and do better tomorrow.

Oh no! Your listening skills need a little work today. Keep trying!

Have you done your chores today?

Let's work on our sharing skills a bit more.

I'll be reporting back to Santa with some not so great feedback tonight.

I'm on strike until your bedroom is tidy! Last night I tripped over in there and got hurt!

I saw that! Come on, I know you can be nicer than that!

Let's try using our manners more. Please, thank you, sorry, excuse me.

Whoops! You've been added to the naughty list for bad behaviour. Let's work on getting back onto the nice list!

You must have forgotten to turn on your listening ears today. Try to remember tomorrow.

When we get frustrated, we should walk away and count to 10. It isn't nice to yell or hit.

Keep trying. Practising good behaviour will earn you a spot on Santa's nice list in no time!

It would make me extra cheerful to see laughing instead of fighting. How about we try that!
